

INFLUX OF HOMECOMERS

DEBORAH HALSEY
IS NOW THE BRIDE
OF NAVY OFFICER

Miss Deborah Grant Brewster Halsey, daughter of Capt. William F. Halsey, U. S. N., was married at 12:30 today to Passed Midshipman Archibald Turnbull, U. S. N., attached to the United States cruiser Kansas. The ceremony was performed in the apartment of the bride's parents, in the Marlborough, by Chaplain Clarke, who came over from the Naval Academy at Annapolis for the occasion. The bride had no attendants, but the bridegroom had for his best man her brother, Ensign William F. Halsey, Jr., U. S. N. The apartment was decorated in a color scheme of white and green. Bride roses, white asters, and white cosmos flowers being used. A screen six feet in height and broad in proportion, made of delicate greens studded with bride roses, formed a background for the bride party during the ceremony, and the table had bride roses for its decorations.

The bride entered the drawing room with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of rich, heavy white satin, made in empire style and trimmed with rare East Indian embroidery, which is an heirloom in her family, and a tasteful arrangement of princess lace. Her veil of tulle was held with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she wore a necklace of pearls with pearl pendant, the gift of her parents, and a pearl horseshoe, the gift of the bridegroom. Her shower bouquet was of bride roses and orange blossoms. Only the families and a few intimate friends were the wedding guests. The bride and bridegroom left on an afternoon train for the wedding trip, and their temporary home will be in Philadelphia, where the Kansas is. The bride's going away gown was of dark blue voile, with hat to match.

The Palais Royal
—A. LISNER—
Remnant Day

Thursday here. Tomorrow's the day. Look through the list below and please endeavor to be one of Thursday's early visitors. "The early bird catches the worm" may sound a little vulgar, but it's sound logic. Note that all five floors will be dotted well, and that the remnants on them will be marked at and below the actual cost.

Fur "Opening"
The new collection of 1907-08 Furs is at last complete—and the "Opening" is to occur tomorrow. In the gathering of this $200,000 stock keen and trained eyes guarded our interests and yours, and not a trashy piece will be found here. In a few instances rare bargains were secured, and these will be offered as souvenirs of the "Opening."

Sets, $5.98
Sets Worth $10

Black Persian Paw Sets, with correctly new long scarf and pillow muff; satin lined. It sounds almost too good to be true—$5.98 for $10 sets. It's so liberally true that you can't afford to miss the opportunity and be wise.

$16 Sets, $9.98

The newest sets of the 1907-08 season are made of the skins of the Russian pony. The sets comprise tie and melon muff. $9.98 only during the "Opening."

$15 Sets, $8.98

Natural Squirrel Sets—scarf and large pillow muff. Only twenty-five sets to be distributed at $8.98.

10 Per Cent Discount

The great proportion of the new Furs, while not bought at bargain prices, were secured at the good discount that prompt cash secures, and will be offered at the moderate profit a cash business enables. For tomorrow's "Opening" an additional 10 per cent discount will be allowed.

$121.50 Will suffice to-morrow for the Chinese Sable Sets marked $130.00, which are not duplicated at the furriers at less than $130.00.

$50.00 to $75 Persian Lamb Sets can be yours tomorrow at one-tenth off the marked prices.

$43.00 to $118 are the price extremes of the new Mink Sets, less 10 per cent discount tomorrow.

$20.00 to $35 are marked on the Black Lynx Sets here. One-tenth deduction from the price marked on the set you select tomorrow.

$16.00 to $25 for the Russian Pony Sets, which are selling in New York at $30 to $35. Note that the discount is also allowed tomorrow.

$15.00 to $27.50 are the Palais Royal prices of the Sable Squirrel Sets, less 10 per cent discount tomorrow.

$7.98 to $25.00 are the price extremes of the Natural Squirrel Sets, less 10 per cent discount tomorrow.

$18.00 to $35 are the prices of the Japanese Mink Sets, less 10 per cent discount tomorrow.

Less Than Furriers' Prices

Note that separate pieces are also to be subject to the 10 per cent discount. Particularly note that the prices marked on these best furs are very much less than furriers' quotations. Finest Mink Muffs are here at $25 to $50, such as cost $30 to $60 at the furriers. Mink Scarfs are marked at various prices from $18 to $68, which will cost you $25 to $75 at the furriers. The furriers' $55 and $60 Ermine Muffs are here marked $50 and $55—costing you only $45 and $49.50 tomorrow.

Last of Many
$7.98 and $14.98
Were $15 and up to $40

Tourist Coats at $7.98 and Suits at $14.98. Take elevator to third floor. "Kill two birds with one stone"—attend the Fur "Opening" and the Suit and Coat "Closing."

Corsets at 79c

Call them Remnants—but are they not the well-known $1 to $2 "R. & G.," "P. N.," "C. B.," "W. B.," and "Nemo" Corsets? Choice tomorrow for 79c.

Warm Skirts, 39c

The Knit Petticoats fit you like a glove and are "as warm as toast." The flannelette skirts are less clinging. Third floor.

On First Floor
25c 39c 79c

The famous "Merode" and "Oneita" Union Suits, also separate pants, tights, vests, and corset covers. Cozily fleeced Swiss-ribbed garments for ladies and children, at 25c to 79c, instead of up to $1.
